

Banners must conform to the following standards for construction of pole and street banners:

Material: The material for banner assembly shall be nylon reinforced vinyl banner fabric not less than sixteen (16) ounces per square yard. Thread shall be nylon same as Mil-T-7807 (Federal Standards V-T-295 Type II size E).

Construction: Banner edges shall be trimmed per Federal Standard stitching Class EFA using a double row of locking stitch type 301. Brass grommets shall be three-eighths (3/8) inch ID, spaced every eighteen (18) inches apart on the top and bottom edges. Corner brass grommets shall not be less than one (1) inch from the edges. Air vents shall be installed per the city standard drawing (Typical Detail Street and Pole Banner, City of New Haven Department of Engineering, Feb. 22, 1999, Drawing No. STD-NH-30). (See Below)

