

Objective

Looking for a relocation opportunity within the United States lower 48. I have many years in the printing industry starting from Digital Imaging through Offset Printing and finally in the Large Format Printing arena dealing with digital files print prep and graphics installs. I don't claim to be the best at what I do, but am always keen to learning new techniques that will help improve the production line. Anyone looking for a dedicated employee that can perform on his own or within a team environment would benefit by adding me to their team.
