

How to use Desire in Windows.

How to access Desire's Alternates if your software does not support OpenType in Windows.

1. First open the character map.

2. Click advanced view

4. Set to Private Use Characters

3. Set to Unicode Subrange

6. Click on the letters you want to access. When Finished, select Copy and paste the letters into the text string in your current design software.